

THE U.S. DISTRICT COURT OF OREGON HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Invites you, your family, and colleagues to its
Free Annual Picnic
Celebrating lawyers who have served
In the executive and legislative branches of government

at

Judge Edward Leavy's Family Hop Farm
Featuring an old-fashioned barbecue, music, pony rides, and games for the kids!

*This year's picnic will also feature
Wolaver's All American Ale from Middlebury, Vermont
Made with organic hops grown on the Leavy Farm!*

Sunday, August 17, 2008
1:00 until sundown

Sponsored by
The Federal Bar Association, Oregon Chapter, and
The U.S. District Court Attorney Admission Fund

RSVP to 503-326-8150 or mary\_ellis@ca9.uscourts.gov
By August 13 and with the number of adults & children in your party

The Leavy Farm is located at 22675 Butteville Road, N.E.
Head south on I-5 to exit 278 (Donald/Aurora Exit). After exiting Turn west on Ehlen Rd. Turn right on the first crossroad, Butteville Rd. The farm is two miles down Butteville.

**Do you know someone attending the picnic who qualifies as an honoree: a lawyer who has served at the city, county, state or federal level in the legislative or executive branches? If so, please contact Mary Ellis in Judge Leavy's chambers at 503-833-5350.*